

Wyatt Carss Software Developer and Infamous Fact Sponge

carss.w@gmail.com

http://wcarss.ca

1 647 702 5332

Toronto, ON

Skills Profile

- Uses Python, Javascript, Ruby, PHP, Bash, C, and C++ on *nix systems for work and projects.
- Experienced and effective organizer and leader.
- Great written and verbal communicator at all levels: has taught children, students, and professors.
- Able and willing to give talks or to MC events.
- Unusually keen eye for consistency and detail.

Education

Bachelor of Computing School of Computer Science, University of Guelph

Sept 2007 — Dec 2011

Guelph, Ontario

- Acted as Senator for the Bachelor of Computing Degree.
- Won McLeish Award for the highest average in core computing courses in a given year.
- Recipient of Upper Grand Learning Foundation Scholarship.

Selected Employment History

Developer

Feb 6 2012 — Current

FreshBooks

Toronto, Ontario

- Reading and writing code for billing systems, APIs, integrations, internal tools, and customers.
- Organized after-school classes to teach programming to Grade 6-7 kids.

Software Engineer Intern

June 1 2011 — August 26 2011

Google

San Francisco, California

- Committed code to webkit browser engine, underlying Chrome, Safari, and many other browsers.
- All work was test-driven. Wrote failing tests and coded to make them pass.
- Independently achieved success in a worldwide distributed team.

Teaching Assistant

Jan 5 2009 — April 2011

School of Computer Science, University of Guelph

Guelph, Ontario

- CIS 1200, 1500, 2500: Taught, aided, and marked students learning C and Javascript.
- Ran multiple weekly highly attended labs of half-lecture, half individual assistance.

Software Development Engineer Intern

June 13 2009 — Sept 04 2009

Microsoft

Redmond, Washington

- If you use a hyperlink in any Office 2010 product, you're running my code.
- Understood one of the largest codebases in the world; used industry standard and internal tools.
- Worked in a large team and acclimatized to the sort of process required in large organizations.

President

April 30 2008 — April 29 2009

Society of Computing and Information Science

Guelph, Ontario

- Organized and delegated tasks among eight Executives and dozens of active members.
- Designed and drove advertising campaigns (web, print, and speech) for hundreds of members.
- Chaired weekly public meetings using Robert's Rules of Order.
- Performed business in a fair, fun, and unbiased manner to represent everyone's interests.

Awards

Innovation Guelph Award of Excellence

June 28 2011

Guelph Chamber of Commerce

Guelph, Ontario

- Created, organized, fundraised for, then coded for The Guelph Seven.
- We built seven apps in seven days, and received local and national news coverage.