

WYATT CARSS

1 519 803 3337 | 1079 Alabama St. | San Francisco, CA, 94110 | <http://wcarss.ca> | carss.w@gmail.com

SKILLS PROFILE

- Skilled in application development languages including C, C++, Java, Ruby, and Python.
- Uses web development technologies like JavaScript, PHP, and Drupal.
- 4 years of experience on planning committees, driving web design, event organization, materials organization, and advertisement platforms for a variety of events.
- >4 years experience managing and working within teams.
- Regularly verbally advertises school events, also hosts and MCs events to large audiences.
- Able to communicate complex ideas at different levels - teaches kids, students, and professors.
- Creates content for blogs and websites.
- Finishes things and effectively manages time across many projects.

EDUCATION*

Bachelor of Computing School of Computer Science, University of Guelph

Sept 2007 — Dec 2011

Guelph, Ontario

- Senator for the Bachelor of Computing Degree
- McLeish Award (Highest average in core computing courses in a given year)
- Upper Grand Learning Foundation Scholarship

SELECTED EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Software Engineer Intern

June 1 2011 — August 26 2011

Google

San Francisco, California

- Committed code to webkit browser engine, underlying Chrome, Safari, and many other browsers.
- All work was test-driven. Spec'd behaviour, wrote failing tests, coded to make them pass.
- Independently achieved success in a worldwide distributed team.

Teaching Assistant

Jan 5 2009 — April 2011

School of Computer Science, University of Guelph

Guelph, Ontario

- CIS 1200, 1500, 2500: Taught, aided, and marked students in C programming.
- Taught weekly labs, covering topics in a practical manner to ensure students' individual success.

Software Development Engineer Intern

June 13 2009 — Sept 04 2009

Microsoft

Redmond, Washington

- If you use a hyperlink in an Office 2010 product, you're running my code.
- Understood one of the largest codebases in the world; used industry standard and internal tools.
- Worked in a large team and acclimatized to the sort of process required in large organizations.

President

April 30 2008 — April 29 2009

Society of Computing and Information Science

Guelph, Ontario

- Organized and delegated tasks among eight Executives and dozens of active members.
- Designed and drove advertising campaigns, including web, print, and speech, for hundreds of members.
- Chaired weekly public meetings using rules of order.
- Performed business in a fair, fun, and unbiased manner to represent everyone's interests.

AWARDS

Innovation Guelph Award of Excellence

June 28 2011

The Guelph Seven

Guelph, Ontario

- Conceived, organized, found sponsors and team members, and made seven apps in seven days.

/* * In this section, I sacrifice internal consistency (every bullet ending with a '!') for common convention, as these points are not sentences at all. */